Joe The Artist

Mr. Izzillo has been painting for over forty years and has a studio in Wilton, CT.

He has studied with George Cherepov, Tel Goerschner and Kita Macon. He has also studied at the Silvermine Guild Art Center. For the last five years he has participated in Artist Ride on the Shearer Ranch in South Dakota where he has drawn inspiration for his western paintings.

He has exhibited his paintings at the Hudson Valley Art Association and also in Greenwich, CT and Milford, CT. He has exhibited his western portraits at Prairie Edge Gallery in Rapid City, South Dakota. He has also had a one-man show at the Yah-Tah-Hey Gallery in New London, CT.

Mr. Izzillo paints landscapes, seascapes and western portraits in oil on canvas.

Joe The Father

Joe was born in New York City. He attended New York schools graduating from Theodore Roosevelt High School in 1943. During his junior year in high school he left for a while to join the Capuchins in Beacon, NY to study to become a priest. He stayed with them until late 1942 and then left, had a variety of jobs until he was drafted in March 1943 entering the United States Army, Combat Engineers.

Joe served in the European Theater of Operations from January 1944 until January 1946. While in England he met his wife, Noreen. They were married in Leicester, England on August 4, 1945. While serving in England he met his cousin Al, who was in the United State Navy. Joe and Noreen's first child, was born in England and their second child, was born in the Bronx, NY. They left the Bronx with his two children in 1952 and moved to Greenwich, CT, where they raised his six children. Joe and Noreen's six children's names are Dorothy, Bill, Denise, Joe, Mark, & Jeanne.

After serving with the Army, Joe attended Fordham University and then went on to St. John's University School of Law where he received a degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence in 1951. He was formerly associated for three years with the firm of Glass & Lynch in New York City. He opened an office for the practice of law in Greenwich, CT in 1952. He was counsel to Bleakley, Platt & Schmidt and Of Counsel to the firm of Roberts, Rose & Bates P.C. in Stamford, CT.

Mr. Izzillo has exhibited his paintings at the Hudson Valley Art Association in New York and also at banks in Greenwich CT and Milford CT.

In 1998 and 2000, he has exhibited his paintings at Prairie Edge Gallery in Rapid City SD.

In 1998, he had a one man show at the Yah-Tah-Hey Gallery in New London, CT.
